Bemsa Design

I am Klaus Neuberger.

My true passion is music. As a musician as well as a producer I developed over the years my unique sound signature which now enables me to achieve top performances.

Bemsa design is the basis for my visual artworks. Telling stories, bringing visions to life, celebrate the intuitive moment is the drive to my work.

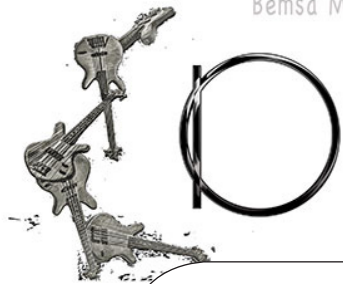

Bemsa Music School

The Bemsa Music School is designed for anyone just learning to make music. Our aim has been to set out a structured system of lessons ranging from the basic to the advanced. Early Beginner, Music Kids, Young Musicians or Restarter: We will find the best way for all these groups to get in touch with music. The Bemsa Music School would like to help you to improve your musical skills, giving each student the individual attention necessary for a progressing mastery of his instrument.

It's no accident that you have fun and success!

A suitable program for everybody!

Bemsa Musicplace

Since the beginning of 2004 we have been running a music store in the heart of Tauberbischofsheim. We offer qualified advice and support based on our experience in selling musical instruments and equipment for over a decade.
